

In my opinion SAT radio providers should be allowed to supply beneficial programming in the same manner as any other radio service provider.